WELCOME

Welcome to the 20th anniversary of Affordable Art Fair in NYC! What an honor it is to celebrate this incredible milestone with you this year at our longstanding home, the Metropolitan Pavilion.

This edition boasts 75 exhibitors over two floors and much-loved features such as the Young Talent Exhibition featuring textile-work by Traci Johnson and curated by Arts Gowanus, as well as the iconic Under $500 Wall and a full cafe and bar on Level 2.

Our evening events, Private View (Wednesday 6 – 9pm) and Art After Dark (Thursday 6 – 9pm), are returning with refreshments by spirit brand Volley, beer partner Voodoo Ranger IPA and introducing Psychedelic Water. We are also delighted to showcase the Triptych Salon, outfitted by furniture brand SENTIENT.

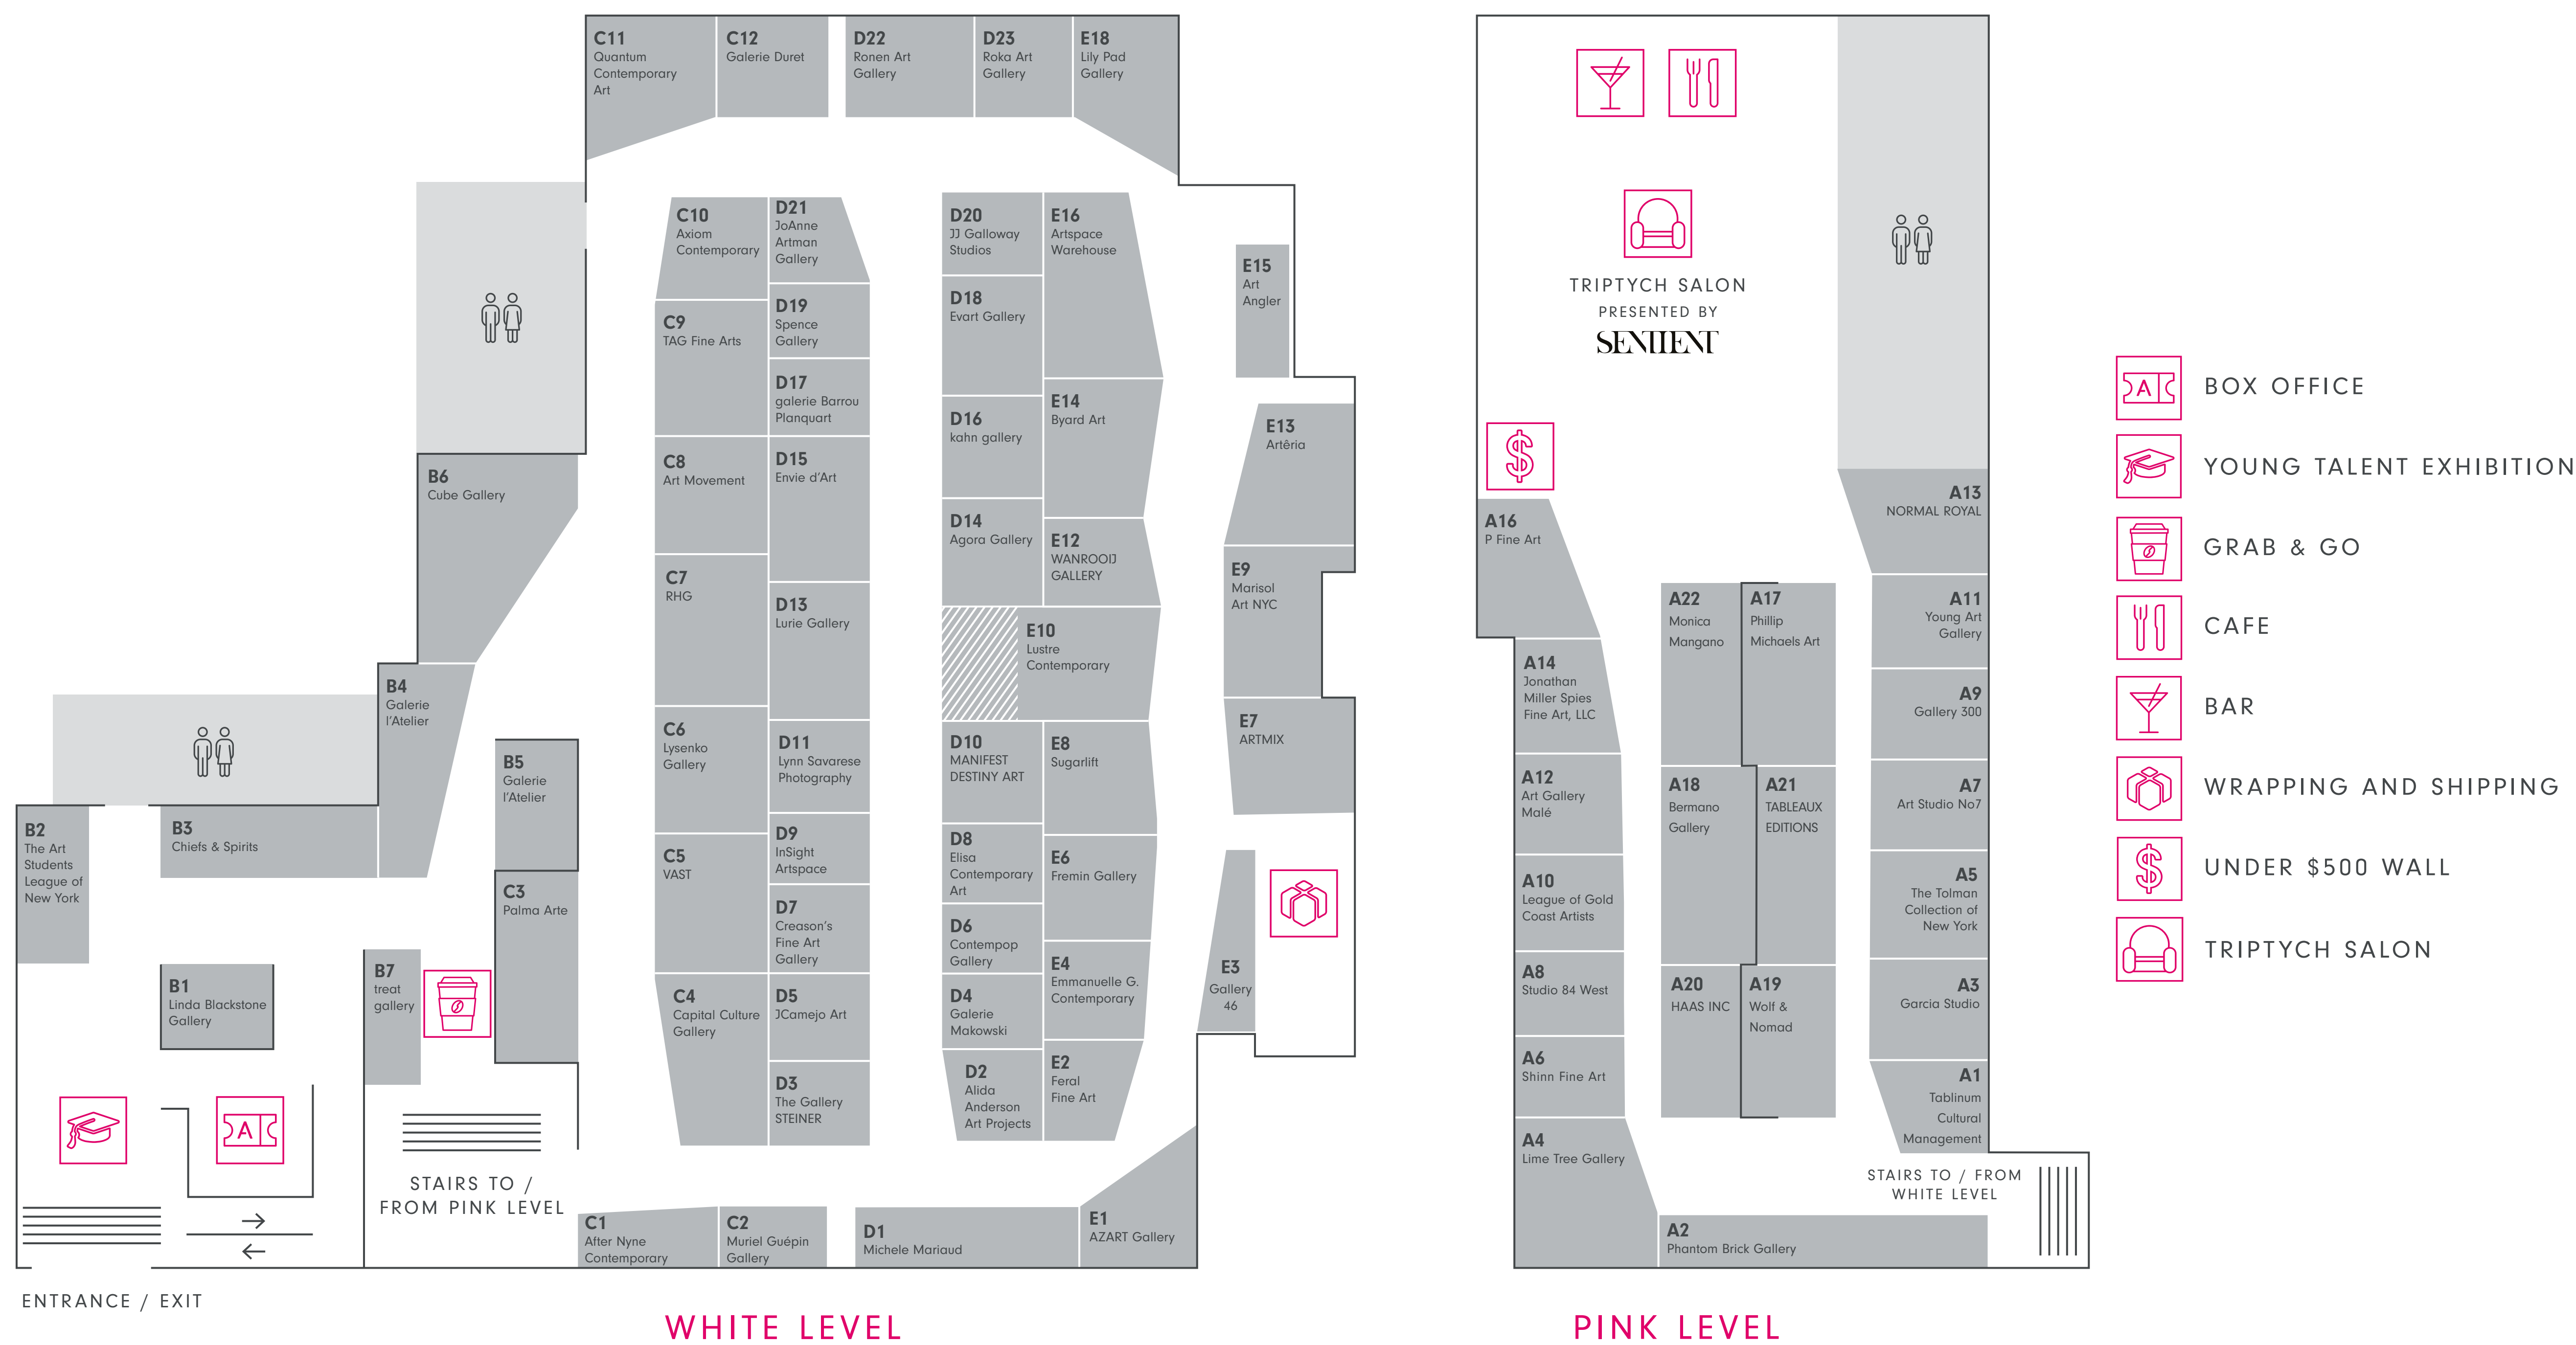

Free Friday returns from 6 - 8pm, and Stroller Hours are back on the weekend (Saturday and Sunday 10am – 11am), where we have created a playful kids corner with modern baby and toddler brand Lalo and goodies from Little Spoon for our youngest collectors.

Thank you for your support and we hope you enjoy your time onsite with us!

All the best,
Erin
